GETS YOUTH TO BUILD A BIG DREAM

- Through a process of self-discovery, youth explore their natural inborn gifts and talents.
- They discover and acknowledge their resilience as a skill to overcome life's hurdles.
- They develop powerful action plans to reach personal goals that lead to realistic big dreams.

GETS YOUTH TO MAKE BETTER CHOICES

- Youth learn the importance of healthy friendships and reaching out to positive adult mentors.
- They improve communication skills to interact with family, friends, teachers and other adults.
- They see the value of education and develop inspiring career options.

GETS YOUTH TO BECOME LEADERS

- Youth become positive influencers and examples to their peers.
- They gain confidence as facilitators of the restorative justice process to bring together victim and offender in a respectful face-to-face dialog to repair the harm.
- They take on being socially responsible young adults with a strong sense of self and direction to make a difference in the world around them.
